ABSTRACT

This annotated bibliography has been compiled as an introduction to reference resources for college-level African studies and to suggest useful tools for literature searches. It is a guide to materials in the library of McGill University. Call numbers are included. The titles cited refer to Africa South of the Sahara as a whole or to large sections of Africa. Many specialized bibliographies relating to individual countries have been excluded. Also excluded are the basic tools for political science, sociology, anthropology, geography, and economics. Cited are encyclopedias, handbooks, news digests, biographical dictionaries, atlases, directories, bibliographies, theses and research in progress, archival materials, serials and newspaper lists, and monographs. AFRICA SOUTH OF THE SAHARA:
A GUIDE TO REFERENCE SOURCES

This bibliography has been compiled as an introduction to reference resources for African studies and to suggest useful tools for literature searches. The titles in this list refer to Africa South of the Sahara as a whole or to large regions of Africa. Many specialised subject bibliographies and bibliographies relating to individual countries have been excluded; these may be found by consulting the LC and Cutter subject catalogues under the specific subject (e.g. WITCHCRAFT) or under the name of the country with the subheading BIBLIOGRAPHY.

In addition the following subject headings might be useful: COMMONWEALTH OF NATIONS - BIBLIOGRAPHY, for historical and current material on English-speaking Africa, and UNDERDEVELOPED AREAS - BIBLIOGRAPHY, particularly for material on development and economic themes.

Publications listed in section II.B list additional bibliographies, many of which can be found in the McGill collections. The two bibliographies by Yvette Scheven are particularly recommended. This guide deliberately excludes the basic tools for political science, sociology, anthropology, geography and economics because these are listed in the guides for those disciplines prepared by the Reference Department of McLennan Library (e.g. Anthropology: a Student's Guide to Reference Resources). Additional reference tools and bibliographies of relevance to African studies can be found listed in the following guides:

African Literature, a Student's Guide to Reference Resources.

Book Reviews, a Guide to Locating Reviews of Books in the Social Sciences and Humanities.

British History, a Student's Guide to Reference Resources: Part IV. British Overseas.

All guides are available for consultation at the Reference desk and for distribution through the Copy Service.

Other Collections in the McGill System

References relating to Moslem Africa, North Africa, Egypt and the Sudan have largely been excluded from this bibliography, as they are collected in depth by the Islamic Institute Library. The Religious Studies Library should be consulted for additional material on religion in Africa, the Marvin Duchow Music Library for music sources, and the Blackader-Lauterman Library for art materials. Most government publications are not listed in the McGill Union Catalogue. Therefore, the Government Documents Department should be consulted for official documents listed in section II.C and for additional bibliographies concerned with government publications. Sources of statistics relating to Africa are listed in the bibliography by Joan M. Harvey, Statistics Africa: Sources for Social, Economic and and Market Research (see section II.I.3.), and many of the items cited, which are produced by governments and international organisations like the U.N., can also be found in the Government Documents Department.

Collections Outside McGill

As a member of the Center for Research Libraries McGill benefits from their holdings of African materials which are available on long loan. A special programme, the Cooperative Africana Microform Project (CAMP), was developed in 1963 to acquire difficult-to-obtain african materials. The collection includes archives, manuscripts, newspapers, field notes, journals and monographs. Materials in the CAMP collection are listed in the CAMP Catalog. 1977 Cumulative Edition (Z3509 .C6x 1977). For additional information ask at the Reference desk or Interlibrary Loans Service.

A cooperative arrangement among the university libraries of Montreal to ensure broad acquisitions of African materials and to avoid unnecessary duplication, was begun in 1967. The following areas of specialization were agreed upon: McGill - English speaking West Africa and North Africa; Concordia, Loyola Campus - South Africa, East Africa and Ethiopia; Concordia, downtown campus - Zimbabwe, Zambia, Malawi and Liberia; Université de Montréal - French West Africa and the Congo.

Most of the publications listed in this guide will be found in the Reference Department of McLennan Library, although some locations in the stacks or in other libraries have been given. All locations for works mentioned in this guide have not been listed however. For additional locations check the McGill Union Catalogue under the entry used in this bibliography.

If you have any difficulty using this guide or the reference resources listed in it, please do not hesitate to ask for assistance from a reference librarian.

This edition was compiled by Mary Mason, Reference Department, McLennan Library.

A. Guides to the Literature

Z3501 D78 Ref UL — Duignan, Peter, ed. Guide to Research and Reference Works on Sub-Saharan Africa. Stanford, Calif., Stanford University, Hoover Institution Press, 1971.

This is an exceedingly useful guide. Because of its comprehensiveness it is probably the most important item to consult in order to expand upon each of the sections of this reference guide. Includes works in English, French, German, Italian, Spanish, Portuguese, Slavic languages, Arabic and Afrikaans arranged in four sections: research organizations and collections; bibliographies on Africa in general; subject bibliographies; and bibliographies by region and country. Most entries have annotations which are evaluative as well as descriptive.

Z3501 H27 Ref — Hartwig, Gerald W. and William M. O'Barr. The Student Africanist's Handbook: a Guide to Resources. Cambridge, Mass., Schenkman, 1974.

Includes reference and bibliographical tools as well as basic texts and journals useful for African studies. Easy to use for both a disciplinary or geographic approach. Highly selective.

Z7164 U5N6 Ref — Norgaard, Ole. Social Science Literature on Developing Countries: an Annotated Guide to Information Sources. Copenhagen, Centre for Development Research, 1978.

Gives very useful and helpful coverage of information sources of use to the Africanist, particularly in the subject areas of economics, geography and political science. Detailed information provided concerning useful publications of international organizations such as UN, UN Economic Commission for Africa, ILO, FAO etc. Has a section devoted to bibliographic tools for Africa.

Z3501 P15 Ref LibSci — Panofsky, Hans E. A Bibliography of Africana. Westport, Conn., Greenwood Press, 1975.

Designed to update and complement Duignan, the first part does in fact cover much the same ground as Hartwig. There is much more guidance as to the quality and significance of the items included. References to reviews are often included. The 2nd and 3rd parts cover sources for the study of individual countries and selected subject topics (e.g. relations between Portugal and Africa). Detailed with good evaluations of recommended titles.

Z3501 S58x Ref UL — Skurnik, W. A. E. Sub-Saharan Africa: a Guide to Information Sources. Detroit, Gale Research Co., [1977].

A basic introductory tool, with thoroughly annotated references to useful basic sources from a political sicentist's point of view. The chapters have useful introductions and cover topics such as Panafricanism, Western Europe and Africa etc. Lists a few bibliographies, handbooks etc. for a more extensive research.

Entries arranged by author, with a detailed subject index. Primarily English and French materials.

Z3501 A1S3 — Scheven, Yvette, comp. Bibliographies for African Studies, 1970-1975. Waltham, Mass., Brandeis University, 1977.

Z3501 A1S3 1980 Ref — _____. _____, 1976-1979. Waltham, Mass., Crossroads Press, 1980.

Together these two bibliographies are the most convenient and up-to-date listings available for the social sciences and humanities in Africa South of the Sahara.
